

The Global Fund for Children invites you to join us for a private discussion and webinar, “Stories from the Field”

As a valued friend and supporter of The Global Fund for Children, I know you care about vulnerable children facing war, violence, disaster, and daily threats to their safety and well-being – and the transformational solutions that support and uplift them for better lives and futures.

That’s why I’m extending this special invitation to join me for a special “Stories from the Field” webinar on Wednesday, December 6.

When: Wednesday, December 6, 2017

Time: X:XX - X:XX p.m. Eastern Standard Time (EST)

Click here to RSVP and get your exclusive participant code and link.

On the call you’ll hear from two trailblazing leaders from the field, Kakenya Ntaiya and Danikuu Alexis Dery, who will tell their signature stories about the genesis of the NGOs they founded, and related achievements – like a registered TED talk and CNN Hero nomination, among others!

You’ll also hear from GFC program director Emmanuel Otoo and EVP Neil Ghosh about XXXX [help here, Steven]. The webinar feature will give you added visibility into the on-the-ground day to day work by our staff and partners with the children we serve.

Here are the details:

When: Wednesday, December 6, 2017

Time: X:XX - X:XX p.m. Eastern Standard Time (EST)

Click here to RSVP and XXXXX will send you your exclusive participant code and link.

This is a private, GFC-supporters-only call, with special access to information about our programs and our progress in strategic focus areas. If you have questions about GFC's work, you'll have the chance to share them on this call.

Pre-register now to join us on December 6 for our call. RSVP to XXXX XXXXX.

I look forward to an engaging discussion and hope that you can join us!

Sincerely,

John Hecklinger, President and CEO
