Theory of Change

A Supportive Ecosystem

Partner Organisations

Children and Young People

Global Fund for Children
Theory of Change

Resilient and transformative partner organisations

- Strengthen organizational practices to become more adaptive, creative and resilient
- Feel empowered to advocate for themselves and their communities
- Enhance child and youth leadership and participation
- Nurture, sustain, and benefit from connections with others
- Create and advance child- and youth-centered programming
- Grow stronger and more responsive to challenges
- Amplify the visions and voices of local communities
- Feel empowered to advocate for themselves and their communities
Theory of Change

- Children and Young People
- Thrive in safe, nourishing, and empowering communities
- Have access to education and life opportunities
- Understand and exercise their voices, agency, and rights
- Become future leaders and changemakers
Theory of Change

- Offers flexible funding
- Fosters networks
- Builds trust-based relationships
- Strengthens safeguarding
- Fuels emergency responses
- Supports community-driven change
- Advances meaningful youth-led engagement

Global Fund for Children
Theory of Change

A Supportive Ecosystem

- Strengthens learning and research
- Centers young people and communities as changemakers
- Prioritizes flexible and long-term funding
- Focuses on community-driven systems change
- Builds and sustains peer networks and relationships
- Shares and promotes knowledge and ideas

Prioritizes flexible and long-term funding

Centers young people and communities as changemakers

Focuses on community-driven systems change

Builds and sustains peer networks and relationships

Shares and promotes knowledge and ideas

←